

Membership in AMAT: Join Us and Become a Part of Our Vibrant Organization

A MAT ENVISIONS... a nation where transplant organizations apply a multicultural perspective to their relationships with donor families, transplant patients, healthcare professionals, and the general public. We aspire to be a part of a community where people of all cultures embrace organ, eye, and tissue donation as a social responsibility.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT... equips AMAT members with the tools to take their careers to the next level. As a member of AMAT, you will have the opportunity to enhance your scope of practice and knowledge of current industry standards, access thought-provoking webinars, and attend yearly conferences. In addition to earning continuing education units (CEUs) through ongoing webinars and sessions held at the annual meeting, AMAT members will also have the unique opportunity to network with veteran multicultural transplantation and organ procurement organization (OPO) professionals who welcome the chance to share their expertise and advice for successfully mapping out long and fruitful careers in this rewarding, lifesaving industry.

SHARED BEST PRACTICES...allow AMAT members to exchange ideas, insights, and guidance on best practices that are effective when reaching multicultural communities with the life-enhancing message of donation and transplantation. AMAT members have access to free webinars that feature industry leaders, clinicians, researchers, transplant recipients, and donor family members. AMAT members also receive exclusive digital communiqués and newsletters that explore emerging and innovative best practices designed to better equip readers with the tools and resources for continued success and professional development.

MULTICULTURAL WORKGROUPS...offer advocacy, cultural insight, and nuanced approaches to ensure that all ethnically diverse communities are represented in the tapestry of organ, eye, and tissue donation and transplantation in the U.S. Boasting four multicultural workgroups—Asian/Pacific Islander, African American, Latino, and American Indian — AMAT members are uniquely positioned for enhanced cultural competency and cross-pollination of ideas and strategies designed to favorably engage with ethnically diverse communities and stakeholders.
